

Night Board meeting to cover e-cigarette ban, role of art at BART

“A number of complaints have reached the Board of Directors about people using electronic cigarettes and vaping devices on BART property,” said Director Robert Raburn. “Other transit providers have enacted prohibitions that we now propose to enact.”